

Privacy Policy

The Hand Up Network (HUN) knows that you care how information about you is used and shared, and we appreciate your trust that we will do so carefully and sensibly. This notice describes our privacy policy. It is our desire that visitors to our website are aware of this privacy policy.

Personal Information

HUN does not knowingly allow other organizations or services to track individual visitors to our website. Our site captures limited information about visits to our site, but we use this information internally to analyze general traffic patterns (e.g., what pages are most/least popular), perform routine system maintenance, and develop more opportunities for our supporters to engage with the Ministry.

HUN does not sell, rent, or otherwise share any personal information collected via emails to sent to HUN. HUN only uses the information submitted to interact and respond to HUN related activities.

HUN does not sell, rent or otherwise share any personal information collected from subscriptions to our website, e-newsletters, etc.

Links

This website may contain links to other sites. Please be aware that HUN is not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected by this website.

Conditions of Use and Revisions

If you have any concern about HUN's privacy practices, please send us a description of your concern to info@handupnetwork.com and we will try to resolve it. You may also contact us by phone or postal mail. Changing circumstances may require that we make changes to this privacy policy from time to time. Any changes will be reflected on this website.
